

Year 4 – Keep Smiling Fry Class 😊

Please see a list of activities you could do at home while school is closed. In the table below you will find 4 weeks of activities for the second half of the term. We will be looking at books by David Wiesner and finishing with some end of term activities. Remember these are just a list of ideas for you to dip in and out of. Please don't feel pressured to complete them all. It is up to you what activities you do. It might be that you use the below weeks and carry out the tasks over the Summer Term. You could tick which ones you have completed and come back to the other activities at a later date. Don't forget you can also use the following websites:

Writing	Flotsam by David Wiesner https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3MTKWnxzqvM Follow the link to the video of the text. DON'T watch it all! Watch the text until 0.29s – the double page where the boy is lying on the rug looking through his magnifying glass. What do you notice about this book? I can write a character description. We would like you to think about the character of the boy. Use your knowledge by taking what you can see and use the clues, for example, What has the boy taken to the beach? to write a character description of the boy. You could think about his appearance and what he is like as a person. Remember to write using full sentences, with a range of punctuation and conjunctions.	Flotsam by David Wiesner https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3MTKWnxzqvM Continue to watch the text up to 0.47s. I can write a diary entry to describe the boy's day on the beach. We would like you to write a diary entry as if you were the boy on the beach. Where did you go? Who did you go with? How did you feel? What did you do? What did you find? What do you think is on the camera? Remember to use first person (I) and use a range of exciting adjectives to describe the beach and what the boy finds. Use your imagination to describe what could be on the camera!	Flotsam by David Wiesner https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3MTKWnxzqvM Watch the whole text from the beginning. I can describe my favourite underwater scene from the camera. Remember to use a range of sentence starters and exciting adjectives to describe the scene. Try to bring the tiny details to life through your description. Finally.... What do we learn about the owner of the camera?	SPAG day! BBC Bitesize – English: Apostrophes to combine words https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/articles/z4p2mfr Activity: Complete the activities on bitesize and then complete the contractions worksheet they provide.	Friday – something different Guided Reading Purple Mash: Home/Serial Mash/ Serial Mash Emeralds/ The Porchester Park Project Activity: Read Chapter 1 and complete activities set.

Writing	I can draw myself as a superhero. I can label my superhero to describe my super powers and super skills. This week we are thinking about moving on and becoming year 5 next year! Whilst we've been in lockdown you might have discovered a new interest, developed a new skill or used your growth mindset to achieve something you couldn't do before. We would like you to think about your identity – your likes, dislikes, your personality.... and create a poster that shows you as a superhero! Remember your powers need to be true to yourself so that we can learn all about you.	I can create a school year memory page. Today we would like you to create a memory page from this school year. It has been very different this year, so it will be great to have a record of your thoughts and ideas. You can choose how you would like to present your page. Your page should have the following headings: - This is me! - Funniest memory - Best classroom activity - Best part of the trip to Pulborough Brooks - Favourite book I have read or listened to	I can create my dream tree. Today you are going to create a dream tree. The tree is yours, be creative! The tree, the trunk, the branches and the leaves can be any shape, size or colour – but you need to be able to write on it. Each part of your tree should have a full sentence describing a dream for the future. They can be dreams for today, for next week, for next month...next year...or when you are much older. Remember to write using full sentences, with a	SPAG day! How to use a semi-colon. https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zvwwxnb/articles/zshfdxs Activity: Complete the activity and quiz.	Friday – something different Watch BBC Newsround and discuss what is happening in the wider world. Can you write about a topic you have just heard? Or click on a video clip that interests you. https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround
